ELLYSON, KOINER AND WILLIAMS LEAD

Entire Third Congressional District Voting For Them.

VOTE IN RICHMOND.

Congressman H. D. Flood Uses Plain Words in Denying J. G. Pollard's Accusation.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 5.—Reports from fifteen cities and towns in widely scattered sections of the state received up to two p. m., indicate that Williams, Ellyson, and Koiner will be returned winners in today's primary. The voting in many sections is very light locally. Contests here and there swell the total.

(Special dispatch to Gazette.)

Richmond, Va., Aug. 5.—The voting in Richmond is light. Pollard, Ellyson and Koiner will probably lead here, and the whole of the third congressional district. Telegrams from Southwest Virginia, Charlottesville and Albemarle indicate that Williams, Ellyson and Koiner are favorites. Few points have been heard from at 1 p. m.

Congressman Hal D. Flood today denounced as absolutely false the charge made last night by John Garland Pollard in a speech here in which the candidate for Attorney-General declared that Mr. Flood had visited saloons here to ine up the liquor vote for Williams in opposition to Pollard. "The statement was false and Mr. Pollard knew it was false," declared Mr. Flood, who used a shorter and uglier word in denouncing Mr. Pollard.

TO WAR ON SUFFRAGE.

German Catholic Central Association Forms a Woman's League.

Buffalo, Aug. 5.—The organization of a Catholic Women's League that proposes to counteract the tendencies of the women's movement, including the demand for the use of the ballot, marked yesterday's session of the German Catholic Central Verein, which is holding its convention here.

Branches of the league will be formed n all parts of the country, it was stated by Mrs. Joseph Frey, the honorary president.

"The femininist movement," said Mrs. Frey; "is being promoted by women whose views are decidedly pagan. If their demands were to be realized, the Christian family would cease to exist."

"While the Catholic Church has made no pronouncement on the matter of woman suffrage," she continued, "the Catholic philosophy of life is opposed to it. However, we are not centering our activities in opposition to woman suffrage, but rather in a plan for teh future. The present unrest has resuted in the enfranchisement of woman in several States. Those women would exert an evil influence by maens of the ballot if a conservative body of women was not in the field to counteract their influence."

SEE SLAYER LURE VICTIM.

Two Witnesses of Unusual Homicide Pursue Fugitive in Vain.

South Bethlehem Pa., Aug. 5.—John Meszaros, aged 48, was murdered in the rear of his boarding house on Fortuna street, by Eli Yolish, who plunged a butcher knife six inches into his breast near the heart.

Yolish called at the boarding house and demanded beer. It was refused him, and when darkness came Yolish went to the rear of the house and called out Mezaros, who was singing, stating that he wanted to talk with him. Mearos, little thinking of the violence, wended his way down the dark path, and was stabbed to death.

John Brokins and Martino Sayos saw the murder and gave pursuit, as did the entire police force; but Yolish escaped to the mountains. Yolish came from Camden, N. J.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Drastic and sweeping reductions in express rates for the entire United States, effective, October 15, have been ordered by the Interstate commerce Commission. The commission also provided for a revision of business methods by the companies to "safeguard the public," to give a better receipt, and to simplify befuddling rates. Rate reductions range all the way from 10 to 60 per cent, foodstuffs drawing the principal reductions. Shippers are, it is believed, relieved from all exorbitant charges.

Mrs. Ivy Chevelier, aged 40, and her daughter, Ella, 15 years old, were found wurdered in their home at Kirksville, Mo., yesterday. Mrs. Chevelier and her daughter conducted a laundry. There was evidence that the mother and daughter had been choke dand beaten to death after being attacked. Extraordinary brutality was indicated. The only clew the officers have is concerning a man, formerly a friend of Miss Chevelier, who is said to have tthreatened her life recently.

Dressed in male attire, Mrs. Etta Patton, wife of Zeb Patton, of Asheville, N. C., was found dead with a broken neck near the railway tracks yesterday. It is supposed she was killed by a train. The woman was so disguised in rough shoes and overalls that it was late before she was identified. It was believed that Mrs. Patton was going to Knoxville, where she had connections, but no reason for the man's attire is suggested.

The will of Anhony N. Brady, the traction magnatte, made public in New York yesterday, leaves to his five children and a grandchild the bulk of his estate, estimated at $70,00,000. The widow receives $1,000,000 outright and an annuity of $60,000.

Miss Emma Krill ,a nurse, was arrested at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., yesterday, charged with the murder of Dr. Stanley E. Tron, formerly connected with the lying-in hospital in New York. Dr. Tron was a Harvard graduate and the son of a Presbyterian minister. On June 22 he died suddenly, and the belief is current that he had killed himself with a drug. When arraigned Miss Krill fainted, and was revived with difficulty. It is said that Miss Krill had endeavored to induce the deceased to marry her.

Sentences were imposed upon five members of the West Virginia legislature late yesterday by Judge W. S. O'Brien, of the Superior Court, at Webser Springs. The legislators were convicted of bribe taking in connection withe the election of a United States Senator early in the year. The sentences follow Delegates S. U. G. Rhodes, Rath Duff, and H. F. Asbury, six years each in the penitentiary; Senaor B. A. Smith, five years and six months, and Delegate Davie Hill, five years. In addition the five are disqualified for life from holding any public office.

Rev. George A. Miller, pastor of the Ninth Street Christian Church. Washington, and Miss Emma Ruth Roy, daughter of Mrs. Emma V. Roy, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, and departed immediately on a month's honeymoon tour of the Thousand Islands, Montreal, and Lake George. The bridegroom was a widower and is 51 years old. The bride is 20. She is a leading soprano of the Ninth street Christian Church.

That their pastor, Rev. Andrew Ryczet had absconded with about $100, the funds of the parish, is the report made to their bishop in Scranton, Pa., by the worshipers in the Indepnedent Catholic Church of New Britain, Conn. The life of the church has been one of strife. The parishioners are all Polish, recruited for the greater part from the Church of the Sacred Heart, Catholic.

Vice, until recently segregated in the so-called "Tenderloin," is now scattered to the four corners of Philadelphia. Denizens of the underworld, who formerly kept well within the convenient shadows of the red light district, are walking the principal avenues of travel, openly and brazenly soliciting trade. Disreputable houses have been transplanted to quiet residential sections. Blame for the condition of affairs is attributed to the vice quarantine. It is claimed the fugitive women from the Tenderloin are settling in every part of the city.

WOMEN WILL TESTIFY.

Drew Caminetti, son of former Congressman and present commissioner gereral of Immigration Caminetti, charged with luring Mss Martha Warrington and Loda Norris from California to Nevada for immoral purposes as defined by the Mann white slave act, will involve a big sensational legal battle that will last from three week's to a month and possibly more.

The two young women both of estimable California families, are completely in the hands of the Federal prosecutors who declare that Miss Warrington and Miss Norris will go on the stand as willing witnesses against the two young married men.

DEATH FROM MEDICINE.

Mrs. Emily Redd Sclater Dies Soon After Taking Dose of "Bitters."

Cartersiville, Va., Aug. 5.—This whole community has been shocked to hear of the sudden death on July 26 of Mrs. Emily Redd Sclater, wife of R. Zelda Sclater, of Cartersville.

Th following account of Mrs. Sclater's death is reprinted from the Daily Democrat, of Ferriday, La:

Taking a patent medicine labeled "Bitters'" for a touch of kidney trouble brought death to Mrs. Emily Redd Sclater, aged thirty-eight years, on Pecania Plantation, Concordia Parish, La., yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Sclater suffered a pain in the back yesterdty, and remembering the bitters, which were for kidney troubles, she procured the bottle and read the directions.

"Three tablesoonsfuls twice daily" read the directions, and at 9:15 she took the first dose. Almost immediately she began to feel ill, and soon became very nauseated.

Her husband summoned Dr. Hodges, of Ferriday, three miles from the plantation, and he arrived at 10:15 o'clock, but all efforts to relieve the sufferer failed, and at 1:15 p. m., she passed away.

The deceased was a native of Henrico County, Va.

A PUBLIC NUISANCE.

(Communicated.)

I wish to call the attention of the authorities to the cart that makes its noisy, nocturnal trips through the streets of our city, leaving its offensive disgusting stench to be wafted into the sleeping rooms of our citizens.

In this day, when sanitation and cleanliness are given so much attention, there must be some method by which this nuisance could be abated.

It does seem that we should be protected from this state of affairs by a more sanitary and effective conveyance for this particular work.

The excursion of Alva Aerie, No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles, to Marshall Hall, was, as had been anticipated, well-patronized, and the steamer Charles Macalester left with a large and happy crowd anticipating the joys incident to the outing.

The little ones of the Children's Home were the guests of the organization, and amusements were prepared for the children.

The proceeds of the excursion will be added to the Eagles' building fund.

OVERLAND WESTERNERS.

Quartermon on Twenty-Thousand Mile Horseback Trip.

Alexandria was invaded this morning by the Overland Westerners, a party of four young men of fronteer type direct from the "wild and woolly west," with the celebrated pack horse Pinto and a dog, Nip, the four westerners, C. C. Beck, J. B. Ransom, G. W. Beck, and R .G. Rayne reached this city on horseback after an adventurous trip of ten thousand miles, across the rockies, fording flooded rivers crossing the broad plains of the Dakotas and the hills of Montana, and are now on their way to Augusta, Maine, where they will turn about face for their return trip of ten thousand additional miles which will lead them south toward Texas, passing through the Middle States, the southewestern states, toward their goal, and the city of San Francisco.

The object of the 20,000 mile horse back trip of these hardy young men is to test the endurance of Pinto, the pack horse, an ordinary bronco of Arabian blood, but noted for his great endurance. If the party succeed in safely bringing this horse through to San Francsco, they win a wager of $20,000 offered by western stockmen, which is a dollar for every mile travelled. The party started May 1st, 1912, from Olympia, Washington, and have already passed through sixteen states on the way east, and before the trip ends will hve passed through every state in the union. Th trip will take three years, ending at the Panama Exposition in June, 1915.

Tomorrow the party of ranchmen will visit President Wilson and they expect to have the President pose with them for a photograph. Governors of every state have accorded the riders royal welcome. In crossing the mountains in the spring of 1912, they were the first party for the year to cross the Cascade range through Santa Ann Pass, where they found 12 feet of snow. They swan Powder River in Montana, because there were no bridges. Many adventures befell them, during which they lost four of their horses, all of which experiences will be later described in a book to be written of their trip.

EXPLOSION AT INDIAN HEAD.

Navy's 14-inch Rifle at Proving Ground is Destroyed.

A great 14-inch gun burst at the naval proving ground at Indian Head, Md.,last week,involving at estimated loss of $50,000. No one was injured.

A statement issued by Acting Secretary Roosevelt says the gun burst at the breech and while being 'proof-fired". The presure at which the gun burst," says the statement, was 20 1-2 tons, which is approximately four tons above the service pressure. It is the custom to subject all guns to one shot at this high pressure, although they are never again so fired. The reason for the bursting is under investigation."

The gun was totally destroyed. It was intended for the dreadnaught New York, recently launched at the Brooklyn navy yard.

Just before the gun was fired, the men who had loaded and primed the monster rifle, crept ino the safety pits made especially to protect life in the event of the explosion of a defective gun.fl The charge was fired from the pit by electricity, and instead of recoiling properly, the breech of the giant weapon seem do crumple up. The breech and the breech plug were blown more than 100 feet.

PROVOST GUARD FOR HARPER'S FERRY

Soldiers Cause Excitement Last Night by Disorderly Acts.

DRUG STORE IS RAIDED

Guardsmen Produce Consternation at Church Festival—Mayor Closes Bar Rooms.

Camp Ordway, Near Harper's Ferry, W. Va., Aug.5.—Mayor Wentzler, of Harper's Ferry, intends to take up with the officers of the District National Guard today the question of furnishing a provost guard for the town. The mayor's contemplated action is the result of an escapade in town last night by a group of guards_ men.

In the best of spirits they swooped down on the ferry, raided the Erwin drug store and spraed consternation among the quiet townsfolk at a church festival, and caused the mayor to take the precautionary step of closing the bar rooms at 8:30 o'clock.

Brigadier General Harries today declared the trouble did not warrant established military police in town.

There were no arrests, and officers are inclined today to believe that the Harpers Ferry people were unduly alarmed. Only one man is in the guard-house today, and the offense charged against him is the use of ungentlemanly language to the sentry on the camp grounds.

As much excitement exists as in October, 1859, when John Brown made his descent upon Harper's Ferry.

"AT COST SALE" AT KNIGHT'S.

R. E. Knight and Son have arranged their entire stock for convenience of close inspection by the public during the holding of the "At Cost Sale" which is being conducted all of this week, ending Saturday night tt 11 o'clock. Everything in stock has been marked down and in many cases way below the original cost prices. Bathing suits, porch and lawn benches, chairs, porch swings and all kinds of sporting goods, stationary, etc., are going at low prces. This is an extraordinary opportunity for the buyer no matter what the article desired, for Knight and Son keep something of most everything.

WILL TEST BIBLE READING.

Catholic Societies Adopt Resolutions as to Schools.

Reading, Pa., Aug. 5.—At today's session of the eleventh annual convention of the State Federation of Catholic Societies, resolutions submitted from Blair county, criticising the reading of the Protestant Bible in the public schools, the recitation of Protestant prayers and rendition of Protestant hymns were adopted.

tI was the sentiment of the convention that, the public schools being regarded as non-sectarian, there should be no Bible reading at all, not even of the Catholic Bible, and that its introduction under the recent act of Legislature is merely a plan for the teaching of the Protestant religion.

It was deciced to test the constitutionality of the practice, and to this end the matter was referred to the State Executive Committee, with instructions to act, and, if deemed advisable, "to institute proceedings in some favorable locality, to the end that these sectarian aggressions be eliminated from the public schools."

Rev. Joseph B. Brock, of Erie,led in a vigorous discussion on the matter, setting forth that the Catholic Church, desiring religious instruction in her schools, has built and maintained schoos of her won, and it would be for others to do likewise if the schools are to become sectarian.

It was decided to hold the next annual convention in Erie.

BREAKING UP COBBLESTONES.

Old Paving Material to Reappear in Macadam Work.

The passing of Alexandria's old time cobblestones streets, while it sounns a new note in the progress of Alexandria, will also strike the heart of many of he old inhabitants in rather a sad manner.

The old cobblestones having passed more than a century in active use, are still as serviceable as they ever were, but new improvements and new notions whch is the complaint of the old inhibitant who deplores the tendency of the times to rush into new fangled things, such as block streets, etc., demands different things. With the passing of the cobblestones from our streets, comes their absolute disappearance, as in their new and changed form, the old stones of many shapes are no longer recognizable. The city is rapidly crushing and grinding them to pieces of various sizes on the lot at the corner of Cameron and Henry street, where, under the direction of the city engineer, a rock crusher is making short work of the familiar stones that once served the old inhabitants of Alexandria very well, bnt no longer fit in with modern conditions and demands.

SILENCE IN BRADDOCK HOUSE.

Old Hostelry Destitute of Life Save in Extreme Southern Corner Where Piano Agency is Located.

The Braddock House, with all its memories, is now minus human life, with rodents scampering through the corridors without let or hindrance. The many families, lodgers and itinerants who have during the past quarter of a century found refuge in the old hotel have packed their trappings and sought other abodes. The storm of last Wednesday afternoon left ts prints upon the eastern section of the edfice, and repairs are needed. It is hard to realize that the old landmrk is no longer used as a human habitation after its long career as a public house. Half a century ago it was the leading hotel of Alexandria and was liberally patronized. During the four years civil war the government utilized it as a hospital, and hundreds of federal soldiers passed into the other world from its wards.

While many persons at times were accommodated there after the close of hostilities, it never regained the popularity it enjoyed in ante bellum days, and its decline as a pulic house has been gradual. Nobody seems to know for what purposes the building is to be used in the future.

Soem excitement was caused on the river front between Duke and Wolfe streets late yesterday afternoon when Max Morgan, 17 years old, fell overboard. Being unable to swim, he would have drowned had not Edmund Hayden and Claude Phillips, two young men who witnessed his predicament, jumped overboard and gone to his rescue. They succeeded in bringing Morgen safely to shore.

BURNING OF A SUMMER RESORT

Blue Mountain House Destroyed by Fire Early This Morning.

GUESTS' HASTY EXIT.

Washingtonians and Baltimoreans Have Thrilling Experience and Narrowly Escape Death.

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 5.—Shortly before 6 o'clock this morning the Blue Mountain House, a famous hotel in the heart of the summer resort region on the mountains was destroyed by fire, and 200 guests, including many Washington and Baltimore people, were driven out of the buildings by the flames, many narrowly escaping with their lives.

Only two persons were injured, B. F. Metzger, and his nephew, Malcolm Frank, both of Norfolk, Va., who were seriously burned about the head.

Mr. Metger and his nephew occupied a room on the fourth floor of the hotel, and when they were aroused the flames had made considerable headway, but were driven back, and they managed to reach a fire escape.

The damage is estimated at about $250,000, $100,000 on hotel and contents and $150,000 in jewelry and clothing belonging to guests.

Mrs. Caples, wife of C. A. Caples, of the Western Maryland Railway freight department, lost $2,000 worth of jewelry.

The insurance carried was $50,200.

The fire started in a room used by the porters at 5:50 a. m. in the middle of the building. A gas jet had been left burning, and it is supposed that the wind blew a curtain against the flame.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 5.—Rev. Geo. B. Strickler, D. D., LL. D., professor of theology in Union Theological Seminary, and one of the most widely known and generally beloved minister of the Southern Presbyterian church, died last night at 9:45 o'clock at the home of his son, Dr. C. WATCHMAN SAFECRACKER.

Discover Faithless Guardian in Act of Robbery.

Richmond. Aug. 5.—Two men who owns stalls in the Second Market, F. K. Fairlamb tnd Julian E. Flourney, filled the role of amateur detectives last night with such success that they captured an unfaithful night watchmtn, Joseph Fisher, in the act of rifling the safe in Fairlamb's office, and incidently unraveled a mystery that has completely shrouded a chain of safe robberies in this market for the last six months. Fisher looked up from the opened safe last night to stare into the barrel of a pistol in the hands of Flournoy, threw his hands above his head, and said calmly:

"Well, you've got me. I'll go quietly."

ASSAULTED COMPANION.

Young Woman Brutally Treated in an Automobile.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 5.—Moses Stone, 21 years old, was arrested yesterday on the charge of assaulting and choking Miss Ethel Hall, 16 years old, daughter of Mrs. M. W. Hall. The warrant was sworn out by Mrs. Hall on information from her daughter.

Miss Hall is reported to be in a serious condition at her home suffering from inflammation of the throat, the result it is said, of blows inflicted by Stone early on the morning of Sunday, July 27, while going home in an automobile.

According to Mrs. Hall, Stone struck her daughter while he was taking her home in an automobile about 2 o'clock on the morning menioned. Miss Hall and her sister had been to Ocean View with Stone and another young man. They returned early in the morning coming to Norfolk on the last car. Stone secured an automobile to carry the girls home.

Stone had been drinking very heavily at Ocean View and was intoxicated, it is charged. While in the automobile, Stone, according to the girls' story, placed one arm around her neck and struck her several blows with his fist, after which he choked her. The girl made no outcry and nothing was known of the occurrence until Monday night when her throat started swelling and she was unable to eat. Drs. Robinson and Andrews were called and the girl has been under their care ever since.

Even though suffering intensely from pains in her neck she refused to tell her mother about the occurrence. She continued growing worse and told her mother and Mrs. Hall secured a warrant for Stone.

KILLED IN CHURCH ROW.

Pinned beneath the steering wheel of his automobile, E. O. Crawford, a wealthy oil operatir, was instantly killed when the machine turned turtle near Emplenton, Pa., late yesterday. Mrs. George Lamberton was so seriously injured that her death is momentarily expected, and three other women passengers were cut and bruised.

GOVERNOR ASSAILED.

Barringer's Scathing Arraignment of the Virginia Executive.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 5.—Paul B. Barringer, former head of the Virginia Polytechnic Insitute, has replied to Governor Mann's comment that "Commissioner Koiner should profit by the example of Dr. Barringer being fired from V. P. I."

Dr. Barringer reviews the attack made upon him while president of the Agricultural College, and in reference to Governor Mann, says:

"That the governor of the great commonwealth, a state like Virginia, should have lowered himself to make use of, as tools for a political conspiracy, men whose records he knew, at least well enough to appreciate their value was a shock. The height of the venality was simply the measure of their value to him, as a long lever it better than a short.

"But any chief magistrate, any sworn officer of the law who would do this thing would do anything. The elastic limits of an oath of office are nil—once over the line honor is gone forever. He would balk at nothing. I remember his record, his political double dealing in the days of Mahone, his recent campaign as representative of the liquor interests in the east and the idol of the "dry" in the west. And I further know him to be under influence of the most scrupulous character. To remain in office with such an enemy in the capitol was unwise."

SHOT BY ROISTERERS.

Robert Mosley Badly Wounded When Young Men Fire Pistols.

Bristol, Va., Aug. 5.—Robert Mosley, a farmer, was shot and dangerously wounded at Jasper, on the Virginian and Southwestern Railway, Sunday evening. A party of young men with revolvers, left the train and began shooting promiscuously. Mosley was shot in the chin. The ball penetrated his mouth and lodged in the throat. An operation was necessary to remove the ball. The patient, it is said, knows some of the men involved, but has been unable to talk. Officers are searching for the guilty parties.

WORK ON DOUBLE TRACKS.

Construction Forces Have Grading Almost Completed to Amherst.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 5.—The work on the double tracking of the Southern Railway between Monroe and Tye River, north of Lynchburg, is being pushed forward rapidly by Curtis and Shumway, the contractors, who began early during the spring. Already the second track is in use for construction purposes up to Cool Well, and the construction forces have the grading nearly completed to Amherst Courthouse, while much of it is done beyond Amherst. The contract is to be completed by November 1, giving the system sixteen additional miles of double track, and making a stretch from the Nelson county line to Sycamore, below Lynchburg, of about 50 miles. It is generally understood that the remainder of thesystem between Tyre River and Orange, the southern end of the original double track system will be let to contract next year.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family, a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

SMALL KITE WITH ENLONGATED TAIL.

The election throughout the state today is the last act in the campaign which has been raging during the past few months. It seems to be a foregone conclusion that J. Taylor Ellyson will be nominated to succeed himself as lieutenant governor, as will also Mr. Williams, the present attorney general, and Mr. Koiner, commissioner of agriculture, the bulk of the voters of Virginia, seeing no good reason why these able and faithful officers should be thrust aside to make room for would-be successors, whose only platform is war upon present incumbents upon general principles.

It is the same old issue—outs vs. the ins. Richmond and other papers have of late contained attacks upon present officials, with the same antiquated headlines referring to so-called "machines" and "rings," which have long ago made people tired.

Those engaged in this warfare have on two occasions in past years been snowed under while engaged in struggles for the United States senatorship On former occasions able and prommenent men were figureheads, but during the present campaign their candidates have been neither.

Years ago a Rev. Dr. McGlynn attempted to gain notoriety by defying the Pope. A comic paper at that time published a cartoon representing a dog with a huge wash boiler attached to its caudal appendage. One line under the picture told the story—"Too much can for the dog." It looks as though the cans are too heavy for the candidates today.

The anti-organization forces were unable to secure a standard bearer who drew any water, hence they have done the best they could, and it looks as though the tail is about to prove disastrous to the kite.

ANOTHER SILLY MOVE IN MEXICO.

The sending of Ex-Governor John Lind, of Minnesota, to Mexico to endeavor to adjust the differences between Huerta and the revolutionists is in line with the other silly actions by the United States which have been undertaken since the Mexican situation loomed large on the horizon. According to press dispatches Governor Lind, is a very fine man but has no knowledge of conditions in Central America, does not understand a word of Spanish and has had no experience in dealing with the subtle minds of the natives of the country south of the Rio Grande. His mission cannot result except in a failure. The only reason we can advance for his being sent is that the state department was compelled to make some sort of answer to the people for its unaccountable delay in defining the position of the American government.

We can best compare the sending of Governor Lind to Mexico by supposing that President Huerta would dispatch one of his officials who had never been in the Unted States and who did not understand a word of English, to come to Virginia and settle the differences between the Democratic organization in this state and the anti-organization.

RICHMOND IS RABID.

Philadelphia Rector Attacks Prelates And Plutocrats.

New York, Aug. 5.—The Right Rev. GGeorge Chalmers Richmond, rector of St. John's Church, the fashionable sancutary of Philadelphia, yesterday hurled further javelins at the prelates of his denominations. Following up his attack of Sunday, he advocated the immediate retirement of Dr. William D. Walker, of Buffalo, Bishop of Western New York, and the Right Rev. John Scarborough, Bishop of New Jersey, declaring "they have stood against progress, have lost their spiritual and moral usefulness, and are now n their dotage."

He asserted he would preach a more startling sermon next Sunday, at which he would give names and dates and expose hidden facts in support of his contentions.

The text of next Sunday's sermon is to be, "The Enemies of the Spiritual Life, or the Degeneracy Seen Today in the Episcopal Church."

Dr. Richmond made further pointed accusations against Bishop Greer, Dr. Manning, of Trinity, and Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, rectrr of the Church of the Ascension, commonly known as August Belmont's church. He used such terms as "puppets of the faith," "social riff-raff," and "sissies" in his characterizations of officers high in the church.

Following are points which Dr. Richmond says he will elaborate upon next Sunday from his Philadelphia pulpit:

"I shall tell how Walker thinks the only church in the world is the Episcopal Church, even while he talks church unity. I shall tell of his dislike for the Baptist and Methodist churches which openly he espouses.

"I shall tell of the weakness of our church at the fashionable summer resorts; also regarding the recent jewel roberies at Narragansett Pier of the Rumsey and Hanan families, whom I know and who have invited me to tea. I shall tell my congregation that I care not very much about those robberies so much as I wonder how these very rich people stole the jewels themselves. Who stole the money from the common people to buy them? It does not trouble me an iota if all the jewels owned by this crowd of social riff-raff were stolen.

"I shall tell of Dr. Manning's standin gout for a generation against civic ideals. He cannot move the Wall Street millionaires, who compose his vestry, and so he talks of free pews, church unity, so-called. Manning would not allow a Presbyterian, Baptist, or ministers of other denominations to preach in his pulpit, yet he talks of church unity.

"I shall tell how when Governor Hughes was crusading against gambling Dr. Peters and Cannon Chase went to Albany and helped the Governor, but how when they invited Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of August Belmont's Church of the Ascension, he replied, 'Why, gentlemen, there are things I don't dare do. Don't you know August Belmont is the most powerful member of my vestry and the church could not exist without him?"

"I shall tell how the millioanires control, boss, and regulate the church, and why Andrew Carnegie wont give a cent of his ill-gotten gains to the church. The reason is that Carnegie knows the church is a stronger organization than United States Steel. If it has money at it's disposal it would change the ideas of the people regarding business corporations, and produce industrial changes and give the people greater wages, but reduce dividends.

"Regarding remedies: First, the general convention in October must come out squarely for all social and economical ideas espoused by the federation of churches. For example, I believe in the American Federation of Labor and labor unions. I believe in the emancipaton of women, decreasing their hours of toil and paying honest wages so as to keep them from prostitution. Second, we need a new kind of leadership right down through the house of bishops. I am tired of seeing social lights and financial leaders at the head of our vestry and ecclesiastical organizations. Third, the church must stop denouncing Socialism, because the principles of Socialism embrace the doctrines of Jesus Christ. Fourth, men like Morgan, Ryan, and Belmont should be driven from the church. They recognize only that unless they keep a grip on the faith and strangle it, living conditions will change to their detriment."

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea, and other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially is this the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. NEGRO TELLS OF MURDER.

Declares Factory Superintendent Killed Mary Phagan, in Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 5.—James Conley, a negro, testified yesterday that he helped Leo M. Frank, charged with the murde rof 14-year-old Mary Phagan, in a pencil factory here, dispose of the girl's body after she had been killed by Frank, who was the superintendent of the factory.

Conley declared that on several occasions he stood guard for Frank when the latter was closeted in his office with women. Frank, according to the negro's testimony, was accustomed to stamp on the floor when he desired Conley to keep watch.

The negro testified that Mary Phagan went to Frank's office about noon on the day of his disappearance. Shortly thereafter, he testified Frank stamped on the floor and the negro took his accustomed post.

Only a short time had elapsed, according to the negro, when he heard a muffled scream. A few minutes later he was summoned by Frank, who, according to the negro's testimony, apparently was greatly excited. Conley testified that the Superintendent's face was crimson; his body and legs were trembling, and that he clutched a cord with both hands.

"I wanted her and she resisted me," Frank exclaimed, according to Conley. "You know I'm not like other men. I hit her too hard.'

The negro described to the court two alleged incidents which led him to the conclusion that Frank was a degenerate.

Conley then told of going at Frank's direction to the machine room, where he found the body of Mary Phagan. According to the negro, the girl's body lay on the matel floor. He said he knew at once that she was dead.

Conley sad he put the body in a gunny sack. Lifting the bundle to his shoulder, he started toward the elevator. When he was half way across the room the sack slipped from his grasp. He called to Frank for help, he said, and together they carried the burden to the elevator. Both descended to the basement where the body was left on a pile of rubbish, the negro said.

Conley then told of returning to Frank's office, where the negro asserted, he wrote notes, at Frank's dictation, which were found near Mary's body. Conley testified that Frank grew more nervous while in the office. Walking back and forth, Conley stated that Frank exclaimed. "Why should I hang? I have wealthy relatives in Brooklyn."

"But whats going to hapen to me?" Conley said he asked Frank.

"I'll take care of you," Conley said Frank replied, and handed himb a roll of bills containing $200.

According to the negro Frank told him to go down in the basement, gather up some chips, place them in the furnace and put the girl's body on top of them. The negro said he told Frank he was afraid to go into the basement alone, but would go if Frank accompanied him.

Frank according to the witness, refused to go and took back the $200 which he had given Conley, saying he would keep it for him.

Frank, the negro said, told him to leave the building, but to return in about 40 minutes.

Counsel for Frank spent the entire afternoon in a gruelling cross-examination of Conley.
